MTU LUG Minutes October 2nd, 2008

Server Status
It has not been blown up MOTD has been updated, contains new rule (about Unicode) Website has been updated It's okay if we put the GZ box in the rack suggests that we don't turn it on until we locate the braker we only have 15A (we think) UPS connection issues?
We don't know why it's loosing data connection to the computer

Installathon
It's next weekend
We can has projector?
Not yet

Penguicon and other Conventions who knows for sure? No one...

/dev/random anon recommendation to Steve Look into setting up a LUG distributed rendering farm on campus competition on university level for movie things If there was already a movie maybe more interested Advertise that we could provide a server farm if someone comes to us with a movie

Minutes
Send out to List? sure...
Adviser doesn't know we have a wiki

Wiki
No one can ever seem to be added or logon to it Byan not sure if he has an account wiki e-mails "come" from Kyle's gmail addy

SOCS
Student Organizations in Computer Science meta-organization for CS people Extra credit for people coming to Installathon
We need a 2nd rep
Send our VP, it's the first wednesday of every month at 5pm
He doesn't know if he's free at the time.
Byan said he could be the backup guy

BonzAl Brawl (a programming competition)
No one knows that's happening they want to involve more student Orgs what would we want to do?
The fun things are taken all they need is money and man power

IRC logging? we haven't been logging for a while #mtu and #linux should be logged Update of statistics on webpage (hasn't in a long while) agmlego needs to figure out how that was being done Find logs for missing time period RagingMind, Dark-Fx, NUXI... we've got most of it covered #linux publicly available for viewing
#mtu not viewable but stats generated for fun

END
